

Joyce Ilean Jennings 1948 - 2015

MILLERSVILLE, MD - JENNINGS, Joyce Ilean died peacefully at her home on February 2, 2015 after a lengthy bout with cancer. Joyce was a distinguished educator who earned a Bachelor's degree in Education from Coppin State University, a Master's in Education from Johns Hopkins University, and a Doctorate of Education from Temple University. Joyce began her career as a special education teacher in the Baltimore City Schools. Upon receiving her Doctorate's degree, she served as principal of several schools including Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School, Southwestern High School, and Excel Academy at Francis M. Wood. She also worked with children with special needs at Martin Luther King, Jr. Middle School in Prince George's County. Joyce was born September 20, 1948 in Severna Park, Md. She was a devoted member of Asbury Towneek United Methodist Church, where she sang on the Mass Choir, and served as a former President of The United Methodist Women. She served as a member of the Red Hatters and also a member of A.K.A. sorority. Joyce never married; however, she leaves to mourn her three sisters, a brother, numerous nieces and nephews, and a host of loving relatives and friends. Viewing will take place from Sunday February 8, 2pm-6pm at Estep Funeral Home located at 1300 Eutaw Place Baltimore, MD. A separate viewing will be held on Monday February 9, 12pm -4pm, wake from 4pm-6:30pm, and funeral beginning at 6:30pm at Asbury Towneek United Methodist Church located at 429 Asbury Drive in Severna Park, MD.

Published by Baltimore Sun on Feb. 6, 2015.